YOUR GOD IS TOO SMALL: A CONVERSATION WITH THE VATICAN ASTRONOMER

Thursday 26 April, 6.30–8.30pm

Deakin Edge Auditorium, Federation Square, corner Flinders and Swanston Streets, Melbourne

Br Guy Consolmagno SJ is the president of the Vatican Observatory, one of the oldest astronomical research institutions in the world. Having studied planetary sciences at MIT and the University of Arizona, Br Guy worked as a researcher at Harvard and MIT, served in the US Peace Corps in Kenya and taught physics at Lafayette College before entering the Jesuits in 1989. Since 1993, he has worked as an astronomer at the Vatican Observatory, and was appointed president of the Vatican Observatory Foundation in 2014.

In Br Consolmagno's words:

Only by discovering other planets do we have a really good idea of understanding what it is to be a planet. Only by discovering life elsewhere will we really understand what makes life, life. I'm not afraid of finding other intelligences out there—I'm thrilled. I'm not afraid when something in my science challenges something I'd assumed all along in my faith, because I'll tell you what happens all the time in my science—this bit of science challenges this bit of science, and I don't throw my hands up and say, 'The heck with science', but say instead, 'Wow', which we know is the first step to a scientific breakthrough ... to be able to say 'I thought I understood God, but now I see something that makes me realise my picture of God was way too small'.

Monday 25 June (arrive Madrid) to Friday 20 July (depart Lisbon)

In 2018, Catholic Vocations Melbourne is excited to offer Catholic young men of Melbourne the opportunity to walk the ancient pilgrimage route of the Camino de Santiago to the tomb of St James the Apostle. The 500km trek on foot will provide pilgrims with the opportunity to step out of their ordinary lives and to dedicate some time to asking some of life's big questions. Each day pilgrims will have the opportunity for Mass, confession, spiritual direction and prayer. After reaching Santiago de Compostela, the pilgrimage will conclude with two days of prayer and relaxation at the beautiful shrine of Our Lady of Fatima. Your Pilgrimage Chaplains are Fr Nicholas Pearce and Fr Joel Peart from the Archdiocese of Melbourne. Archbishop Denis Hart fully supports this Camino. 'As the Church in Australia enters into the Year of Youth and Vocations, I am pleased to support this initiative, and encourage the young men of Melbourne to take up the challenge and join the Camino 2018 team.' The Pilgrimage is four weeks in total and departs after the last week of university semester one exams, returning in time for week one, semester two.

IMPORTANT REMINDER TO PARISHES: MASS FOR THE FALLEN

We hope that as many parishes as possible in the Archdiocese of Melbourne will participate in the Mass for the Fallen on or around Anzac Day this year. The ACBC, through the Bishops Commission for Liturgy, is strongly supporting this initiative and is urging dioceses and parishes to support it as much as they are able.

Full details are available at the Mass for the Fallen website: <https://www.catholic.org.au/anzac>.

The Mass was launched in 2015 at the Australian War Memorial by its Director, Dr Brendan Nelson.

Allan and Maria Myers have shown enormous initiative and generosity in commissioning Fr Christopher Willcock SJ to compose the Mass for the Fallen, the musical setting for use in celebrations of the Eucharist on Anzac Day.

Anzac Day this year is the finale to the Anzac centenary (2014–2018) and Mass for the Fallen will be sung at the national Anzac Day Mass at St Christopher's Cathedral in Canberra at 8am on 25 April.

At St Patrick's Cathedral in Melbourne, the Mass for the Fallen will be sung on Sunday 22 April at the 6.30pm Mass, when the St Patrick's Cathedral Singers, directed by Christopher Mason and with organist Thomas Grubb, will lead the liturgy.

We hope that all parishes will follow this lead on Anzac Day this year.
